

You're trying to teach me things
I know what I'm in
Get the fuck out my way
You're not what I need
You're trying to teach me things
You talk, talk, talk shit
Get the fuck out my way
You're not what I need

Ok I'm good
Oh yeah I'm great
I don't need y'all niggas to tell me what to think
Oh yeah I'm fine
Ok you're fake..
You're coming at me 'cause you only see the $$$
We ain't talked for a while but now we're friends
And my exes suddenly call me 'babe'

But would you ride with me
When my reign is gone
Shout out to everybody fucking with me since day one
You're trying to be sincere
But I know you played yourself..

Be a fucking man
And tell me what you think
If you don't understand
Get the fuck outta my way
Be a fucking man
And tell me what you think
If you don't understand
Get the fuck outta my way

Wanna take a sip
Wanna wear my shoes
It's funny how it goes when you got the juice
I made it brick by brick
Walls by walls
You can't snatch the shit
I engraved in stone
You hate my self
But you love my songs

But would you ride with me
When my reign is gone
Love for everybody fucking with me since day one
You're trying to be sincere
But you played yourself..

Be a fucking man
And tell me what you think
If you don't understand
Get the fuck outta my way
Be a fucking man
And tell me what you think
If you don't understand
Get the fuck outta my way

But would you ride with me?
When my reign is gone
Love for everybody fucking with me since day one
You're trying to be sincere
But you played yourself..

Be a fucking man
