

Guerriero

Rilès

I woke up in this life and something was strange
As if I've missed a step, as if I was in danger
But I am not Meursault, I am not a stranger
But I am not me, I am not a looser
But if that shit happens, I am not a number
So what's wrong with me, with my Skyjackers
I'm good if I don't crash the ground until the center
Teach me Master I'm gonna be a killer

In this temple
Walls painted with blood
There's no retreat
There's no defeat
You see this bitch
Give it an high kick
Right on its throat
Don't let it go

This ain't easy
No guerriero in one day
I, got arms, don't cross them
As far as my visions are
Reality
Got my weapons with me
Until they become liquid
Until the tiger quits its fury

So never, never...

My blood is mercury, my head is in graphene
I lift mountains, my daily routine
What's your excuse? What's your plan to leave?
You're right there's no places for all these pussies

You're right there's no places for all these bitches
I hate the way they talk, the way they believe
Between me and them, two different species
This is, the end before you even begin bitch

In this temple
Walls painted with blood
There's no retreat
There's no defeat
You see this bitch
Give it an high kick
Right on its throat
Don't let it go

This ain't easy
No guerriero in one day
I, got arms, don't cross them
As far as my visions are
Reality
Got my weapons with me

This ain't easy
Reality
Got my weapons with me
