

Me Falling

Rilès

Everyday
I keep on trying
I swear everyday
I keep on trying
Everyday
I keep on trying, trying everyday
Ouwoo

I try to keep it fresh
I will not rest
Believe it the stress
Made me better in a sense
Yeah, I try to keep it fresh
I cannot rest
R-i-l-è-s
Brand new outfit for your bitch
On the low, on the low, andalé
We supply
Pay the dues
Feed the fam
We done crashed
Then got up
And again
And the problems
And the samples
And the bills
And the friends

You keep on trying
You is a lion
But you been dying
Ever since they got you signed
Need acceptance from no one
Just need my wife
I said I'm right
But inside I'm feeling spines

Oh baby, I'm falling
Falling for the run
Run and try to catch the sun
Oh baby, I'm falling
Falling on and on
Wasn't that wrong, hmm...

You win it or want it
I think it, I make it
My bedroom, my PC
I'm signing for success
You can't put me down
I'm already down
She came by my side and said

Man go get my imagination
Through that vivid innocence
Not to fall in overthinking 'side your mind
Need to kill hesitacion
Get my shit back in motion

I want it all
Will win it all

(Sayonara, sayonara, sayonara)

You keep on trying
You is a lion
But you been dying
Ever since they got you signed
Need acceptance from no one
Just need my wife
I said I'm right
But inside I'm feeling spines

Oh baby, I'm falling
Falling for the run
Oh baby, I'm falling
Falling on and on
Wasn't that wrong, hmm...
