

NO REGRETS

Rilès

What are you missing?
Why you're avoiding?
All the shit you got inside
You say you don't care
But, I see the red in the eyes
That you hide

It's ok
You can cry
You can break
Live your life with no regrets
Till it's over
Till it's over
Till it's over

You can cry
You can break
Live your life with no regrets
Till it's over
Till it's over

Who do you envy?
What made you empty?
What makes you stare at the sky?
Are you just trying to find a reason why?

Tell me your deepest dreams
I don't care how bleak it seems
Feels like you're lacking something
All this hate got you crashing something
Imagine having nothing
Said you're good but I catch you bluffing
Once you're pushing here turns to shoving
You'd think I'd stand here judging

Tell me your story
What were you hiding
Scared of your glory
I feel I might know why
I've been there when the rain falls
Lonely and it's painful
Tell me why you pray for

It's ok
You can cry
You can break
Live your life with no regrets
Till it's over
Till it's over
Till it's over

You can cry
You can break
Live your life with no regrets
Till it's over
Till it's over
