

STEEL INSIDE

Rilès

Sometimes I feel like shit
But part of a rotation
It's a like an invasion of an old demon
A universal burden
That I hope will never take over my soul
Now get the fuck up and run

My heart is frozen
My back is cold
I try to give me a reason
To keep on fighting for
My knees ain't too weak
But my mind is broken
Still by myself, another season
I wasn't ready for

And I been running running running like forever my babe
Thought about stopping it all, on the low
Yet I keep running running running like forever my babe
So let me die on the stage for the show

I keep on going and mistaking my freedom for something granted
And I'm still fighting for my self when nobody around
I know the limelight is a fraud
Fame is not a goal, nah, nah, nah, nah

Fuck a dance
Fuck a jewelry
Focus less on buffoonery
Pick a side
Cannot lose it when
Living life on a Uzi

I don't mind 'bout your insight
Enough of mine
Understand that
I'm a man
Avec un Z
Got a plan
It's all in my head
(You) Sick of them
(Then) Get a gem
HODL it
Get rich when I die

My luck is missing
Yet I got my stones
All by myself I need the peace in (side)
Is this what I'm here for?

And I been running running running like forever my babe
Thought about stopping it all, on the low
Yet I keep running running running like forever my babe
So let me die on the stage for the show

I need you
I'm sorry

Let me suffer
By myself
I ain't used to
It, on and on
I don't feel shit
I can't love you
Yet I still try
And it's not new
I don't want me
To let me down

My knees ain't too weak
But my mind is broken
Still by myself, another season
I wasn't ready for
