Baby I see your shades
I know you're playing games
Looking so cold outside
'Cause she's begging the pain to runaway
Baby you know my name
Yeah you know who I am
She's bumping my songs on her Ipod
Yet her pretty eyes keep on looking away

Yeah you like to play the princess
Thinking that you are someone
And you like to pretend you don't
Baby we all know the song
Yeah you like to play the princess
Thinking that you are the one
Plus you like to pretend you don't
Baby you just do it wrong

Your love is made of hate
Maybe a bit of shame
Your glance is so shy you deny
'Cause your pride is here to Block, block, block the way
Thinking we're all the same
Because we're all the same
I'd like to drown in your eyes
(And maybe your pussy)
But you make no mistake

And you're talking to yourself
Though your mind's spinning too fast
You look quiet on the surface
But the inside is on fire
Yeah you're talking to yourself
But your self is hard to find
Let me dive in those yellow eyes
Stop faking that you don't mind

Yeah you like to play the princess
Thinking that you are someone
And you like to pretend you don't
Baby we all know the song
Yeah you like to play the princess
Thinking that you are the one
Plus you like to pretend you don't
Baby you just do it wrong

You just do it wrong
You just do it wrong
You just do it
Oh you do it
Yeah you do it wrong

I know you don't want love
Neither do I darling
The distance between us is just misunderstanding
We've had sex in my head so much

I won't lie babe
If you make up your mind
I'll give you my 07

And you're talking to yourself
Though your mind's spinning too fast
You look quiet on the surface
But the inside is on fire
Yeah you're talking to yourself
But your self is hard to find
Let me dive in those yellow eyes
Stop faking that you don't mind

Yeah you like to play the princess
Thinking that you are someone
And you like to pretend you don't
Baby we all know the song
Yeah you like to play the princess
Thinking that you are the one
Plus you like to pretend you don't
Baby you just do it wrong

And you're talking to yourself
Though your mind's spinning too fast
You look quiet on the surface
But the inside is on fire
Yeah you're talking to yourself
But your self is hard to find
Let me dive in those yellow eyes
Stop faking that you don't mind
