I spent
One entire week without any rest
Without getting out of my room I know it's all in the head
Always perfecting my craft
I'm not that far from the best
I understood the more you do
The better you know yourself
I understood the mind is bigger than the whole universe
I understood I was afraid of failure, 'till I got hurt
I understood that being rich was more of a state of mind
And I won't ever be happy with money, 'till it buys time
Aside of that, everything marvelous
I level up, more follow us
They fear me now I'm lifting up
You're hating when they're loving us
Family first, I still assert
No fraud involved in none of us
I already knew that before the wave was taking off

And Imma die for my niggaz, they know
Imma still be there, even when I'll take off
I don't trust nobody cuz my body's enough
Really understood a lot from the last several months
Imma die for my niggaz, they know
Imma still be there, even when I'll take off
Not feeling impressed by millions anymore
Really understood a lot from the last several months

Don't ever, ever leave your door opened
Weird niggaz tried breaking in and steal at fucking 3 A.M.
Gotta protect Mom and my sister before they face a gun
I met death twice
Don't worry I can meet it again
Don't ever ever let somebody say
"You can't make a music video without a damn budget"
'Brothers', 40$
10 million and zero marketing
Yes I came in this game like a motherfucking rat I said
Don't ever give a fuck about cats on the internet
Starving for attention but your screen is not paying your bills
You work at a shitty job and your gently hating yourself
So when you go back home
@ at me if it cuts your pain
But the best I understood
Was I don't need validation
I've been waiting for them blogs
'Till I found out it's all made up
Negotiating everything
Paying for a piece of paper?
Making waves in my country
Yet I still got 0 portrait
Something you should know
And I got examples
Everybody was surprised after SEB's support
I had 50 songs out and music videos
And everybody was like
"Why I never heard 'bout you?"

Man..

die for my niggaz, they know
Imma still be there, even when I'll take off
I don't trust nobody cuz my body's enough
Really understood a lot from the last several months
Imma die for my niggaz, they know
Imma still be there, even when I'll take off
Not feeling impressed by millions anymore
Really understood a lot from the last several months

I can understand, it's on my way
I did understand, it's on my way
I did understand there's something wrong
Will it end up badly like it should?
I did understand, I can't go back
So let me dare before I gotta die

Imma die for my niggaz, they know
Imma still be there, even when I'll take off
I don't trust nobody cuz my body's enough
Really understood a lot from the last several months
Imma die for my niggaz, they know
Imma still be there, even when I'll take off
Not feeling impressed by millions anymore
Really understood a lot from the last several months
