

Woah, woah, woah (Woo, ooh)
Whoa

I see your sunlight through the window, it's magic
My thoughts and body were just caught by this traffic
You watched time pass, while I kept myself distracted
Will you forgive now that I'm paying attention
I see your sunlight through the window, it's magic
My thoughts and body were just caught by this traffic

Where did our time go
Encounters beautiful
As above so below
Feel like I let you down
Ever since 2010
I've been distancing myself
In servers, that couldn't help

Only you, are the one to break the shackles of my burden
Are the one to show me glory in the moment
Can not pay you back, even if I could, I can only fall on my knees
Show my gratitude for your deeds

I see your sunlight through the window, it's magic
My thoughts and body were just caught by this traffic
You watched time pass, while I kept myself distracted
Will you forgive now that I'm paying attention
I see your sunlight through the window, it's magic
My thoughts and body were just caught by this traffic

Will you forgive, now that I'm paying attention
Will you forgive, now that I'm paying attention
Will you forgive, now that I'm paying attention
Will you forgive, now that I'm paying attention
Will you forgive, now that I'm paying attention
Will you forgive, now that I'm paying attention (Pacing my steps)
Will you forgive, now that I'm paying attention ('Cause I wanna get closer)
(Out of my breath)
Will you forgive, now that I'm paying attention (Let me rest on your shoulder)
(Hope my tears dry)
Will you forgive, now that I'm paying attention (When I get a lil' older)
(Hope you'll shine light)
But you welcome me back home ('Cause out there it's getting colder)
Back home, back home
Back home, back home
Back home, back home
Yeah, you welcome me back home
Back home, back home
Back home, back home
Back home, back home
Yeah, you welcome me back home

I see your sunlight through the window, it's magic
My thoughts and body were just caught by this traffic
You watched time pass, while I kept myself distracted
Will you forgive now that I'm paying attention

I see your sunlight through the window, it's magic
