RIMON

Yo

The night is young
I had little bit of too much wine
I've been wasting away too much time
Thinking 'bout you
When the morning comes
It don't matter what's been said or done
You're never gonna be the one
But I guess right now

You can pull up
We both can have what we want
Don't need to turn into somethin'
Make sure to pull out
We only having some fun
Take your time, no need to rush it
But you can pull up
We both can have what we want
Don't need to turn into something
Make sure to pull out

'Cause this ain't really me
But it's my way of moving on
I need to make peace
So you're the one I'm calling on
This ain't really me
I need to make peace

Alright, say less
