RIMON

You got used to the mountain views
Got used to being closer to the stars
Never knew that your time was through
Could stay forever
Seems like the world is against you
While they all used to love you from the heart
There's no such thing as comfortable
Never surrender

Never surrender
Never surrender (Hey, babe)
Never surrender
Never, never (Hey, babe)
Never surrender (Hey, babe)
Never surrender
Never surrender (Hey, babe)
(Hey, babe)

Justice is far gone, justice is far gone
Judgment lays in fingers and truth remain distance
And narratives, they go bold
Speedy, no remorse
Only God knows, only God hears it
But what if we all think of God's years (God's years)
We're starting to think we're ahead of God's years (God's years)
We disguised the court (Oh-oh), we have cried in court (Oh-oh)
Central Park Five based on all lies
Late night ain't care for their side
But do we care for their side? On this side
Thirty years later on the wide, wide
Wide, wide, wide, wide web
On the wide, wide, wide, wide web
On the wide, wide, wide, wide web

Don't scream my name while I'm falling to pieces
Don't scream my name (Oh-oh, oh-oh, oh-oh)
Don't scream my name while I'm falling to pieces
Don't scream my name (Don't scream my name)
My name (My name), my name
Don't scream my name while I'm falling to pieces
Don't scream my name (Don't scream it, don't scream it)
Don't scream it, don't scream it now

Hey, babe
Hey, babe
We risin' up, hey
Oh yes, we up, hey
Oh yes, I got the flow, let it bury me
We up, hey
(Hey, babe)
Oh yes, we up, hey
Oh yes, we up, hey
We got money to blow on every move
We up, hey
(Hey, babe)
Oh yes, we up, hey
Oh yes, we up, hey

(Hey, babe)
And yes, I got the flow, let it bury me
We up, hey
(Hey, babe)
Oh yes, we up, hey
Oh yes, we up, hey
(Hey, babe)
We got money to blow on every move
