

moved on

RIMON

And I, see I'm already moved on
You out here late and I
Already got my mind straight
Ain't turning back no more
See, I'm already moved on
You out here late and I
Already got my mind straight
Already got my mind straight

Yeah, you did me wrong
I'm not gonna lie
I've spent nights crying
Skipping classes
Because of your lies
You misused my innocence
You used it against me
Make it seem like I'm crazy
Baby, baby

But time has passed, I healed my wounds
I healed my wounds
Reflected and thought about
Your moves, your moves
You wasn't in a good place
But it's too late
Baby, it's too late
To knock on my door again
To knock on my door again
To knock on my door again

And I, see I'm already moved on
You out here late and I
Already got my mind straight
Ain't turning back no more
See I'm already moved on
You out here late and I
Already got my mind straight
Already got my mind straight

A few months ago
I was less cheerful
But I'm in a better place
Your text came a lil' late
I'm walking the streets with my head up
Ain't nobody testing me
Stressing me
Pressing, depressing me
That's what I call a glow up
So please baby boy don't even show up

You won't get me
I'm over you
You missed your chance
I'm over you
You won't get me
I'm over you

I'm over you

I'm over you

I'm over you

I'm over you

You, you

Time has passed, I healed my wounds

I healed my wounds

Reflected and thought about

Your moves, your moves

You wasn't in a good place

But its too late

Baby its too late

To knock on my door again

To knock on my door again

To knock on my door again

And I, see I'm already moved on

You out here late and I

Already got my mind straight

Ain't turning back no more

See I'm already moved on

You out here late and I

Already got my mind straight

Already got my mind straight
