

Retrograde

RIMON

The sun is wild, and so am I
The moon is quiet, unlike my mind
When I get careless, I feed the fire
Love me tender, lead me through the night

'Cause I'm used to running this shit
Could someone bring retrograde
Could someone make me feel safe
'Cause it's been a while

This is all I do
This is all that I've known
Can I let loose
Always held on my own
With open arms
Bring me my chaperone
For once, for two's

I got to taste it, some time ago
Since then I'm aching, I'm all alone
I've been so selfless, I gave 'em life
And all that I'm left with, is being tired

I keep on running this shit
I keep on running this shit
I keep on running this shit
Could someone bring retrograde? (Could you bring me some retrograde?)

I keep on running this shit (Could you bring me some retrograde?)

I keep on running this shit (Could you bring me some retrograde?)

I keep on running this shit (Could you bring me some?)
Could someone bring retrograde?
