

The Game

Rimzee

Yo
That day date factory set
But I flooded my wing in Lewes
Presidential Rollie, Putin
And this marble flooring Jewish
In that petrol bath
Walah my skin was burning
Countless drills with Kermit
And all them stripes I earn it
Buj in a presser
Had the TT like mega
Niggas fucked up the game
When and done, two for a tenner
SVR interior mayo
I let it spin like the radio
I'm really from the block, J.Lo

I should've been big like Goliath but the game's rigged, it's biased
They say I ain't lit, they're lying, big drip and I ain't drying
If your chick hops in, she fucking, don't run up on me, I'm clutching
I hear rumours and discussions, all 'cause I came from nothing

If your chick hops in, she fucking, don't run up on me, I'm clutching
I hear rumours and discussions, all 'cause I came from nothing

They see me in parties lit with barbies, making the whole place jumpy
And think I'm a target 'cause I'm from OT but I'm more than comfy
She wants a smart whip, my one's dumb quick, we taking off if I dump it
She don't normally go for a geezer, but she got me creaming her crump
