

Who's Gonna Save U Now?

Rina Sawayama

Rina! Rina! Rina!...

Pain ain't gone, I put it away
That's where you stayed deep in my prayers
For so long I waited on you
Went with the lie 'til it was true

So, you burned the bridges
And drained the river
I can't forgive ya
Like I did before

Who's gonna save you now?
Who's gonna save you now, yeah?
I wish you well, but go take it somewhere else
Oh who's gonna save you, save you, save you now?

Who's gonna save you now?

Gave it more than a fair shot even when
(Gave it more than a fair shot even when)
They told me not to, I said I've got to
Guess you became a project to me
(Guess you became a project to me)
Guess that says more about my psyche

(Hey you!)
You burned the bridges (Aha)
And drained the river (So what)
Who cares, whatever
Heard it all before

Who's gonna save you now?
Who's gonna save you now, yeah?
I wish you well, but go take it somewhere else
Oh who's gonna save you, save you, save you now?

I tried (I tried)
It made me lose my mind (My mind)
So many times, oh
I wish you well but go take it somewhere else
Oh who's gonna save you, save you, save you now?

This ain't no absolution
I needed a resolution
Good luck in your evolution
(Hope you learned to live it better)
You wasting my time, don't need it
Say sorry, I don't believe it
You buggin' press hard reset

Who's gonna save you?
Who's gonna save you?
Who's gonna save you now?
Who's gonna save you?
Who's gonna save you?
Who's gonna save you now?

Who's gonna save you now?
Who's gonna save you now, yeah?
I wish you well, but go take it somewhere else
Oh who's gonna save you, save you, save you now?

Who's gonna save you now?
Who's gonna save you now?
Who's gonna save you this time?
Who's gonna save you now?
Who's gonna save you
Who's gonna save you now?
