

Your Age

Rina Sawayama

Not a secret, not a problem
Not a symptom or cure
Not a villain, not a mistake
Not in the eyes of God
Not a weakness, not a failure
Not a saviour, oh no
Not a secret, not a problem

I, I
(I am the number you can never divide
You crossed the line, multiplied the lies
I survived a social suicide)

I, I
(Decisions were not mine
You closed me off, a jail personified
I survived a social suicide)

'Cause now that I'm your age
I just can't imagine
Why did you do it?
What the hell were you thinking?

'Cause I'm not a secret
And I'm not a problem
Why did you it?
What the hell were you thinking?

'Cause now that I'm your age
'Cause now that I'm your age
'Cause now that I'm your age
'Cause now that I'm your age

You know, we all have a monster inside of us
But you, you fucked with my life
