

February Sky

Ringo Starr

Heard the sounds of devastation
Rumble through my R.E.M.'s
It made its way into my veins
Hard to say what happens next

Gonna stand up, rise above the rain
Start a revolution in these dark days
Find the missing pieces that are vacant to the eye
Had enough of February skies

Beautiful is this wasteland
The shadows bask in the sunrise
Comforting all these strangers
Yeah, it's gonna be alright

Gonna stand up, rise above the rain
Start a revolution in these dark days
Find the missing pieces that are vacant to the eye
Well, I've had enough of February skies

Gonna stand up, rise above the rain
Start a revolution in these dark days
Find the missing pieces that are vacant to the eye
Well, I had enough of February skies

Gonna stand up, rise above the rain
Start a revolution in these brighter days
Found the missing pieces that were vacant to the eye
Well, I've had enough of February skies
Well, I've had enough of February skies
