

I'm Yours

Ringo Starr

Daylight is falling,
Nightime is calling,
All the lights of london town slowly disappear.

So lay your lovely head on down
And know that i am here.

I'm yours,
I'm yours.

Moonbeams shine on,
Starlight lights on,
All the dreams of ev'ryone will meet up in the sky.

So sleep and dream
Of shooting stars
And take one for a ride.

I'm yours,
I'm yours.

Barbara, i love you,
I want you, i need you.
Your heart's so big,
Your soul's so deep,
Your forgiving love's so strong.

So let me say in my own way
You're ev'rything i am.

I am yours,
I'm yours.
