

This Time

Ringside

You've been out there for so long
It's made you crazy
Crazy

Staring at your picture while I write this song
You slay me
Slay me

And I still love you like when we were young
But you're angry
Angry

It's gonna happen when you see what you've done
Blame me
Blame me

So you think you're above the law
Take another hit
Someone takes the fall

This time, won't be me
This time, won't be me

So you think you're above the law
Take another hit
Someone takes the fall

This time, won't be me
This time, won't be me

Now you're locked up for thirty days
'Cuz you're dangerous
Dangerous

No contact will keep you safe
It's the promise
Promises

I tried to reach you, but there's just no way
We are strangers
Strangers

All my shit is so five years erased
Contagious
You're contagious

So you think you're above the law
Take another hit
Someone takes the fall

This time, won't be me
This time, won't be me

So you think you're above the law
Take another hit
Someone takes the fall

This time, won't be me
This time, won't be me

All done
Bail you out
Pick you up
Grab the gun

All done
Bail you out
Pick you up
Grab the gun

So you think you're above the law
Take another hit
Someone takes the fall

This time, won't be me
This time, won't be me
