(I love you gleam)

Once I've seen it in your eyes it was hard to say all the words
that mean affection

And I'm on my own and I'm seeing your face and I hope you get the message

'Cause baby I want you but you don't know me (yeah)

And I see you walking through, babe do you see me? (yeah, yeah)

Pressure getting to my head, I feel like Imma lose it, I be talking bout my feelings but no one listens at all
I've been locking myself in my room and thinking 'bout this music and I feel that Imma make it and I hope that I don't fall

All alone, baby can't you see?

You're my only one but we weren't meant to be

Now my only hope in achieving peace

Is just getting to my bread, now she wanting me

Like I just spent my dough, double money back to me

And I scrolled at my phone, see my numbers I receive

And I love foreign hoes, they ain't speaking properly

I took a blunt to the throat, now I feel like Hercules

She want my love but she a hoe, like my features shit ain't fre e

Got evil spirits in my soul, now I'm tryna find my peace

And I can't do it all alone again

And I can't do it all alone

Once I've seen it in your eyes it was hard to say all the words
that mean affection

And I'm on my own and I'm seeing your face and I hope you get the message

'Cause baby I want you but you don't know me (yeah)

And I see you walking through, babe do you see me? (yeah)
