

in the end it'll mean nothing

Riovaz

And I can't handle all this frustration
Just tell me what am I supposed to do?
Maybe I've just run out of patience
What am I gon' get out of you (Gon' get out of you)
Ooh, ooh (Gon' get out of you)

I had an aching heart for you
Came out my chest and split in two
And why did I think that I could trust you?
Trust you-

Something don't feel the same
Girl please stop playing games
Why don't you let go of my hand
Nobody knows my pain
Don't say that we're the same
Man, what's so hard to understand?
Something don't feel the same
Girl please stop playing games
Why don't you let go of my hand (Oh, oh, let go of my hand)

Let go of my hand I need a change
Every day I'm living feels the same (The same)
Every day you're all up in my face

I had an aching heart for you
Came out my chest and split in two
And why did I think that I could trust you
Trust you-

Something don't feel the same
Girl please stop playing games
Why don't you let go of my hand
Nobody knows my pain
Don't say that we're the same
Man, what's so hard to understand?
Something don't feel the same
Girl please stop playing games
Why don't you let go of my hand (Oh, oh, let go of my hand)
