

All Or Nothing

Ripe

Said "I love you" after seventy-two hours
But what the hell was I supposed to do?
Powerful feelings seem like something to dive into, dive into
But now I'm suddenly drownin'
Treading water as long as I can, figurin' out
A new way I can bail us out and then solve the issue

Maybe I'm worried that I'm gettin' it wrong
But I'm startin' to feel that the fire is gone, yeah
There's only one thing left to say (hey!)

Gimme gimme all your lovin'
Gimme gimme all or nothin'
Gimme gimme all your lovin'
Gimme gimme all or nothin'
Gimme gimme

Got me thinkin' 'bout the way this is gonna end
And I been thinkin' that it probably depends
On how long I can deal with the state you put me into, into
Terrified about the message I'm gonna send
Last chance for the love that we're in
Baby I'm doin' all that I can to try to hear you

Maybe I'm worried that I'm gettin' it wrong
But I'm startin' to feel that the fire is gone, yeah
There's only one thing left to say (hey!)

Gimme gimme all your lovin'
Gimme gimme all or nothin'
Gimme gimme all your lovin'
Gimme gimme all or nothin'
Gimme gimme

I believe that you know better than this
But I get it if it's hard to resist
Please remember that I love you to bits
But if you keep this up I have to walk away
Try to sell me on a powerful lie
Say my options are to fight or hide
Hey remember that I'm still on your side
Unless you push me away

Gimme gimme all your lovin'
Gimme gimme all or nothin'
Gimme gimme all your lovin'
Gimme gimme all or nothin'
Gimme gimme all your lovin'
Gimme gimme all or nothin'
Gimme gimme all your lovin'
Gimme gimme all or nothin'
Gimme gimme
