

Avril

Ripe

Like a boat down the riverside
I let you pass me by
Of course it makes sense that I miss you tonight
I feel you slippin' away
Like a shot ringin' in the dark
I felt you hit my heart
Of course it makes sense that I still hurt sometimes
Sometimes every day

If I just stay with it
If I just stare at it
It's just a memory
Until I'm over it, baby

I'm gonna go back to where it started
I'm gonna go back to where it started
I'm gonna go back to where it started
See what I see

Like a fire down the countryside (ooh ooh ooh)
You tore right through my life
Of course it makes sense that I don't take your calls
Best just leave it alone
Said I never could be deceived (ooh ooh ooh)
Now that's just irony
Of course it makes that I'm not scared of fallin'
That's what I tell myself you've done to me

If I just stay with it
If I just stare at it
It's just a memory
Until I'm over it, baby

I'm gonna go back to where it started
I'm gonna go back to where it started
I'm gonna go back to where it started
See what I see (ooh ooh ooh)

I'm gonna go back to where it started
I'm gonna go back to where it started (I'm goin' back)
I'm gonna go back to where it started
See what I see

(I'm goin' back)
(I'm goin' back)
(I'm goin' back)
(I'm goin' back)

I'm gonna go back to where it started (I'm goin' back)
I'm gonna go back to where it started (I'm goin' back)
I'm gonna go back to where it started (I'm goin' back)
See what I see
(See what I see)
(I'm goin' back)

I'm gonna go back to where it started (I'm goin' back)
I'm gonna go back to where it started (I'm goin' back)

I'm gonna go back to where it started (I'm goin' back)
See what I see
