

Eyes Like A Hawk

Ripe

So we step into this dance
Bittersweet tango
I'm not just gonna let you
Walk away with what's left of my heart
Your hands bitter like talons
Or was I merely prey for you?
'Cause if you're gonna hunt me
I might just say a prayer for you too

I do not love you for the thrill of it
And I'm not leaving for the hell of it
I just can't stand it
Your eyes are like a hawk
They're watchin' me
I do not love you for the thrill of it
And I'm not leaving for the hell of it
I just can't stand it
Your eyes are like a hawk
They're watchin' me fall

And one by one, the stars will fall
And you'll be walking home alone
And while you're busy sulking
I'll be out finding someone new
Just like you
The funny thing about this all
Is I'd have given worlds for you
If you'd have said you love me
I might have said I love you too
Shame on you

I do not love you for the thrill of it
And I'm not leaving for the hell of it
I just can't stand it
Your eyes are like a hawk
They're watchin' me
I do not love you for the thrill of it
And I'm not leaving for the hell of it
I just can't stand it
Your eyes are like a hawk
They're watchin' me fall

I do not love you for the thrill of it
And I'm not leaving for the hell of it
I just can't stand it
Your eyes are like a hawk's
They're watchin' me fall
I do not love you for the thrill of it
And I'm not leaving for the hell of it
I just can't stand it
Your eyes are like a hawk's
They're watchin' me fall
