

First Time Feeling

Ripe

Two hours, two joints, too high to drive
That's alright, I let my mind
Kick around the block a couple of times
Two weeks, too good to say goodbye
Is now the time?
There's something that I need to tell you

I knew I loved you
'Cause I said "I love you"
To one I felt less for than you
I knew I loved you
'Cause I said "I love you"
To one I felt less for than you

Took a little while to see it
Longer to want it too
This is the first time feeling
That there's nobody else but you
Get me scared so easy
Of losing myself, it's true
Damn, it's just like a first time feeling
That there's nobody else but you

I try my best to simplify
To justify
The way that I
Am gonna do my best to get you off of my mind
Drive through the desert overnight
To kill some time
There's something that I need to tell you

I knew I loved you
'Cause I said "I love you"
To one I felt less for than you

Took a little while to see it
Longer to want it too
This is the first time feeling
That there's nobody else but you
Get me scared so easy
Of losing myself, it's true
Damn, it's just like a first time feeling
That there's nobody else but you
(Took a little while to see it)
(Longer to want it too)
Damn, it's just like a first time feeling
That there's nobody else but you

I knew I loved you
'Cause I said "I love you"
To one I felt less for than you
I knew I loved you
'Cause I said "I love you"
To one I felt less for than you

Took a little while to see it
Longer to want it too

This is the first time feeling
That there's nobody else but you
Get me scared so easy
Of losing myself, it's true
Damn, it's just like a first time feeling
That there's nobody else but you
(Took a little while to see it)
(Longer to want it too)
Damn, it's just like a first time feeling
That there's nobody else but you
(Took a little while to see it)
(Longer to want it too)
Damn, it's just like a first time feeling
That there's nobody else but you
