

It's enough spirits spill from my lungs sympatico, villainy, betrayed by my tongues who wants to be worthless? apparently, I do change your life and smile a lot they're takin' you, so give 'em all that you've got just to prove it's you down, down, Apocalypse Submarine
I'm sure I read somewhere It's safe to get out and go swimming called her home to weather her veins and who should we blame for these shivering pains? maybe we die, oh, simply to reach? out of the confines, out of phase to ready love to relieve at least all of it unafraid to know you're through down, down, Apocalypse Submarine
I'm sure I read somewhere
it's safe to get out and go swimming see them worry it couldn't be-oh brother, I know you realize in the waiting room all I have today I owe to the Road hey man, don't be afraid ever I am on the ride of my life through the land none of us ever walk at ease I walk alone
I'm sorry I left without saying I should have said...
