

Demons

Rising Insane

Where the angels are calling
For blood and lust
The sinner is holy
And there to trust
Where the saints are crawling
And snakes start to fly
The good go below
And the evil to the

Sky!
There is no turning back
(No turning back)

It's time to watch me
Burn like hell
There's no matter to me
Everything feels the same
Let me fall
Off the face of the earth
To reach a place far away
From my demons

I've climbed up this hole
Just to dive back in
I've cleaned up my soul
But spilled the dirt of my sins
Whenever I feel to reach
A save space again
I let down my guard
And I get caught by the

Wave!
There is no turning back
(No turning back)

It's time to watch me
Burn like hell
There's no matter to me
Everything feels the same
Let me fall
Off the face of the earth
To reach a place far away
From my demons

To reach a place far away
A place far away
I want to believe
There's something more for me

I find myself in a place
So lost in all of its shame
I paint the walls with the pain in my soul
Each time it knocks on my door
I just prepare for the fall
And I'm giving up

It's time to watch me

Burn like hell
Let me fall
Off the face of the earth
To reach a place far away
From my demons

It's time to watch me burn like hell
If these demons leave, there'll be no more of me
There'll be no more of me
