

The Summary

Rising Insane

We're belonging here
But under hands of destiny
So this is the summary

There will always be a way they said
There will always be a smart solution
Go find a path for me
Before I'm ending up in dissolution
There will always be a way they said
Sounds like a narrow-minded fairytale
Choices we have
Not to make would mean to regress

Say can you feel the silence
The pressure running down on you
Are you afraid of dying
Cause that's the last thing you'll do

Take away the dreams we had
Replaced with death
But this just won't happen to you
Face the day when you will see
Your siblings bleed
But this just won't happen to you

We're belonging here
But under hands of destiny
So this is the summary
Right now we close the circle
The beginning of the end begun
Fighting against the current
Can feel it take it one by one

Can you feel the torture
Or do you think it's just passing by

Say can you feel the silence
The pressure running down on you
Are you afraid of dying
Cause that's the last thing you'll do

Take away the dreams we had
Replaced with death
But this just won't happen to you
Face the day when you will see
Your siblings bleed
But this just won't happen to you

I seek for hidden stars since that day
You closed your eyes and flew away
Now I'm looking for myself to decay
Because it won't be the same again
I have travelled through paradise
But found myself in a hell
If there is one thing to sacrifice
To bring you back I'd give it all away
I'd give it all away
