

Warning

Rising Insane

Pocket full of deep fears
Doubled up and twisted
Push and pull your demons down
But they keep on coming back

Moderate to cautious
Getting more disastrous
All signs telling you to quit
Isn't that a warning

One step makes me a runaway
One match can light all the fires up
Cause I'm feeling dead but I live forever
Cause I lose it all so I'm bound to nothing

Blaming all the voices
Leaving you no choices
They have hurt you for all years
Can not stand these noises

Moderate to cautious
Getting more disastrous
All signs screaming out to quit
Isn't that a warning

One step makes me a runaway
One match can light all the fires up
Cause I feeling dead but I live forever
Cause I lose it all so I'm bound to nothing

One match to start the flame
You all laugh but don't dare to feel
Ignore the world that is
Dying around you, too

One step makes me a runaway
One match can light all the fires up
Cause I feeling dead but I live forever
Cause I lose it all so I'm bound to nothing

One step makes me a runaway
One match can light all the fires up
Cause I feeling dead but I live forever
Cause I lose it all so I'm bound to nothing

One step
One match
I lose it all so I'm bound to nothing
