

Hello Love, Goodbye

Rita Coolidge

Last night was a one night love affair
I can't get it through my head
You don't feel the same way I do
You never heard a word I say
Like the old curse not turning loose again
This night ain't gonna end
You were looking for a lover yeah
I was looking for a friend
I will hope
I will cry no more
I won't even ask you why
Never think it always end this way
Hello love, goodbye

Goodbye, my love
I hope I see you soon
Follow the sun then your dream
I want to say that's the last goodbye
I want to say the words I mean
Like the old curse no turning loose again
This night ain't gonna end
You were looking for a lover yeah
I was looking for a friend
I will hope
I will cry no more
I won't even ask you why
Never think it always end this way
Hello love, goodbye

Hello love, goodbye
Hello love, goodbye
Hello love, goodbye
