

You're So Fine

Rita Coolidge

You're so fine, you're so fine, you're mine
Baby you're mine, oh yeah
Well I walk and I talk about you

I love you, I love you
And I need you, oh, by my side
All right, well, I walk and I talk about you

Well there's nothing in this world
Sweet as your lips, you're so fine, you're so fine
Every time we meet, my heart skips a beat
You're my first cup of coffee, my last cup of coffee

You're so fine, so fine, baby you're mine
All right, all the time, oh yes you is
Well I walk and I talk about you

All right now, yeah, all right

You're so fine you're so fine baby
Oh, yeah oh oh, you're mine all the time
Oh yeah, well I walk and I talk about you

You know I walk, oh I talk
Talk about you baby, one more time
I walk and I talk, talk about you baby

You know that I walk
