

Answer Me

Rita Springer

Answer me could you please answer me
There's a hundred things still left undone
Talk to me my fear is sinking deep
My head is telling me You've up and gone

You said I don't have to beg you that I could just come
But I'm standing at the door and it's like, it's like nobody's home
All I need to know is, all I need to know is
Are you listening?
All I need to know is, all I need to know is
Are you listening? And will you answer?

Speak some peace can you just speak a little peace
There's a game playing out in my mind, I think I'm losing
Take it easy on me I think I've forgotten how to breathe
Remind me again Your eyes are forever on me

You said that whatever I need, in you I'd find
Can you turn the lights on cause I'm going at this blind
All I need to know is, all I need to know is
Are you listening?
All I need to know is, all I need to know is
Are you listening?

And can you answer, can you answer
Would you answer, please just answer

Answer me, would you please answer me
I'm listening, I'm done talking
