

Come In

Rita Springer

Lord, You require these things I've lost
Lost in the fire
As they burn away I see you

All of my sin, all of my ache
My spirit moves, my heart awake
You stand and knock
I turn the key
Come in

In everything, in all I sing
In every way, in all I say
All that it cost, I count it a loss
To see you

I stand undone, and I'm amazed
My heart to give, all you to gain
I'm open wide, walk on inside
Come in

In everything, in all I sing
In every way, in all I say
All that it's cost, I count it a loss
Just to see you
With every turn, with every breath
With all my life, and thankfulness
My heart your home, call me your own

You open up the sky
Open up the sky and come down
Open up the sky
Open up the sky and come

Open up the sky and come in
Open up the sky and come in

Come in, come in, come in, come in,
Come in, come in, come in

Come in, come in, come in, come in,
Come in, come in, come in, come in,

Come in
My Jesus come in
Jesus come in, come in, come in

My Jesus come in
My Jesus come in
Open up the sky
Oh won't you come in

My Jesus come in
My Jesus come in
