

There Is A Power

Rita Springer

There is a power, there is a presence
Holding all Heaven, watching the Earth
It can part troubled waters, quench every thirst
Heal what is broken and, break every curse

There is a power, so overwhelming
All of creation, bows to its name
It came to save every captive, cover every shame
Keep every promise and, break every chain

Oh, there is power in this room
And any darkness has to move
For the light is breaking through
And everything that exalts itself must fall
Underneath the power of our great God

There is a power, death cannot alter
And there is a grave, Hell could not steal
It's here to change every outcome, lift every head
Win every battle, and raise the dead

Oh, there is power in this room
And any darkness has to move
For the light is breaking through
And everything that exalts itself must fall
Underneath the power of our great God

Jesus, Jesus (Ooh)
Jesus

In the name of Jesus, there is power
And in the name of Jesus, there is healing
Oh in the name of Jesus, there is power
Yes, in the name, in the name, in the name of Jesus

In the name of Jesus, there is power (I know, I know)
And in the name of Jesus, there is healing (Ah, yeah)
In the name of Jesus, there is power (Oh)
'Cause in the name, in the name, in the name of Jesus
In the name, in the name, in the name of Jesus

Oh, there is power in this room
Any darkness has to move
For the light is breaking through
Oh, and everything that exalts itself must fall
Underneath the power of our great God
Everything that exalts itself must fall
Underneath the power of our great God

Ooh, ooh-ooh
Oh, and everything must fall down

It all comes falling down (Oh)
It all comes falling down (Oh)
Your presence, it all comes falling down (For there is power)
Hey, in Your glory, it all comes falling down (Oh, You have the power)
Hey, in Your glory, it all comes falling down (Only You have the power)

Hey, in Your presence, it all comes falling down (Oh God, You have the power
)
Yeah, in Your glory, [?] comes falling down
[?], it all comes falling down ([?], it comes falling)
Oh, I know, I know, I know it, it all comes falling down (You have the power
)

It all comes falling down
You have the power
It all comes falling down
You have the power
It all [?] falling down
Every knee must bow, every tongue confess
It all comes falling down, yeah, oh-oh
Every tongue confess, every knee must bow
To the King of kings

There's no one like You, God (Oh, oh)
You have the power
Lord, You have the power (You do)
You still heal the sick
You have the power (Ayy)
To raise the dead
You have the power (I've seen it, I've seen it, I've seen it)
To open [?]
You have the power (Jesus)
The lame will walk
You have the power (Yes, You do)
Jesus, You have the power (Oh, oh-oh-oh, oh)
You have the power (I've seen it [?])
Ooh, You have the power (So come and move, God)

There is power in this room, I know
And any darkness just has to move (It has to move)
For the light is breaking through
And everything that exalts itself must fall
Underneath the power of our great God
And everything that exalts itself must fall
Underneath the power of our great God
