

There Is No Striving

Rita Springer

There is no striving
There is no striving in your love
Freely you have given
Freely you have given to us
You have made us yours
You have called us daughters and sons
This is who you are
This is what your love has done

You have given everything my heart could ever need
And all you ask is I believe
And I am resting safe inside your promise to provide
And nothing could ever change Your love
Your love for me, your love for me

There is no striving
There is no striving in your love
Freely you have given
Freely you have given to us
You have made us yours
You have called us daughters and sons
This is who you are
This is what your love has done

You have given everything my heart could ever need
And all you ask is I believe
And I am resting safe inside your promise to provide
And nothing could ever change your love
Your love for me, your love for me

You never ask that I earn Your affection
I could never earn something that's free
I never have to fight for Your attention
Because Your eyes are ever upon me
You never ask that I earn your affection
I could never earn something that's free
I never have to fight for your attention
Because your eyes are ever upon me

There is no striving
There is no striving in Your love
Freely you have given
Freely you have given to us
You have made us yours
You have called us daughters and sons
This is who you are
This is what your love has done
There is no striving
There is no striving in Your love
Freely you have given to us
Freely you have given to us
