

You Have Control

Rita Springer

To you I sing, it's you that I worship
All that I hold, I'm letting go
It's you I adore, God you are perfect
All that I lack, I know you are

I tell my knees to buckle
The sooner I fall, you have it all
I tell my heart surrender
The sooner I let go, you take control

You are my hope, you are my treasure
In chaos I've known, you are faithful

I tell my knees to buckle
The sooner I fall, you have it all
I tell my heart surrender
The sooner I let go, you take control
I surrender, I surrender
I surrender all I am and all I question
I surrender, I surrender
I surrender all I am and all I question

I give you everything, you can take anything
You have control, you have control
I give you everything, you can take anything
You have control, you have control
I give you everything, you can take anything
You have control, you have control
I give you everything, you can take anything
You have control, you have control

I tell my knees to buckle
The sooner I fall, you have it all
I tell my heart surrender
The sooner I let go, you take control
