Probably!

Ritt Momney

Darling
Before you came to see me
There probably wasn't too much on my mind
But kind is all I could be
And color, is all I found inside her
Painting over me with perfect lines
Stacked up nice and neat, didn't have to try

But I'm not
Too great of an artist
Too great of an artist
But for you, I'll probably try
I can sing
And I can write songs for you
And I can buy you clothes too
Just cause I like it when you smile

Darling
If the sun fails to burn you
If the light fails to turn you
Remember you've got your own fire
And if, you'll promise me something
Please make it that nothing's
Gonna push me out your mind

But I'm not
Too great of an artist
Too great of an artist
But for you, I'll probably try
I can sing
And I can write songs for you
And I can buy you clothes too
Just cause I like it when you smile
