Rittz

How dare somebody try to compare me to other rappers like they see a similar ity

The shit ain't even close

C-N-T the record label puttin' bread up on the breakfast table

People hate to see me eat a piece of toast

Homie you don't know me personally cuz you read a post

And then grow the fuck up, never jugg for Earl Pearl

But I bring it to your door step, split your forehead wide open

Tires smokin' in a stolen vehicle

You got love for me I'm easy to approach

Smokin' a cigar from the Dominican Republic

Don't run with a ton of homies

Shut the circle, lettin' no one in the fold

Again a stroke of the rollin' pin

Watch the dough unspin

And roll the cinnamon roll

Openin' the envelope

God damn, now I got 100k inside

And I ain't talkin' toilet paper

When I say that I'm in love with paper products

Diamonds shinin' like a laser

I've been blindin' every lady

Walk into the Asian market, watch your eyes

You could ride away with me

Sit back and watch the entirety of a filthy mind

Why should I apologize

Won't find a lame that's tryinna claim mine, it's occupied

I don't blame rappers tryinna take a step away from me

Unexpectedly, guess they havin' trouble chokin' on they swallowed pride

I may be kind of small inside but my heart is giant

Castin' out a shadow that is hard to walk beside by

Clientel is representin' all around the map

C-Lance send the beats from the North East

Diamonds in a group with Scotty in the lobby

And Bobby just rolled up on me and he got a Warped Tour freak

You can't afford 4gs then don't hit me for the feature, homie

Watchin' Charlo boxin' from the floor seats

Afterwards I had a threesome up inside the Venetian, a 34 floor suite

Yuh-yuh-yuh-uh yeah

I wear the crown like I'm a king

Guts of a dragon slayer

Bitch, I'm privileged like a prince

Heart of a gladiator

Play my throne and crown my queen

Guts of a dragon slayer

Walk around like I'm a king

Heart of a gladiator

I got guts, guts of a dragon slayer

I got heart, heart of a gladiator

I got guts, guts of a dragon slayer

I got heart, heart of a gladiator

Yeah, yeah

Ain't nobody breathin' want it with A Milli

Beat the fuck with me

I'ma bring it to they doorstep

They lookin' at me when I'm whippin' in the city
All black BM, I don't do the Corvettes
Petty motherfucker, I don't ever take pity (No pity)

Every cord a couple hundred grams
And I swear that next year I'm gonna double that, yeah
Cause I came from the gutter
And there ain't no fucking way I'm gonna double back
Now, now

I wear the crown like I'm a king
Guts of a dragon slayer

Gettin' topped off like decapitation
Get a soldier that's hittin' people
I've ordered to kill all over
[?] to fill up my soldiers duckin' assassigators
Keep supportin' the real like I'm bout to go into filmin'
As far as force I'll grab a saber and start slashi' Vader
