

Heartbeat

Rittz

She was my everything
We were the best of friends
We been together since
Me and her were seventeen
Eventually got on one knee
I crowned my queen, it was meant to be
She found her wedding ring
Moved out her parents' house
We finally spread our wings
Then I put a record out
Then all [?]
Who knew everything we'd known in life
Would go goodbye, I'm on the road
She alone inside, she said

My heart don't beat the same anymore
Ever since I let you break it before
It's the pain that I can't ignore
I told her that's just how relationships are
They go from great to gone, I'm praying to God

Take the pain away, take the pain away, take away from my heart
Take the pain away, take the pain away, take away from my heart
My heart don't beat the same anymore
Take the pain away, take the pain away, take away from my heart
Take the pain away, take the pain away, take away from my heart
My heart don't beat the same anymore

Might have come at the wrong time
Maybe we don't know where to draw lines
I don't wanna have another long night
Where you're tellin' me you got involved with the wrong guy
I know we got all of these walls we built up
Like way too quick for a chance at real love
We tried to climb those, had to rent some real trust
And then I couldn't catch you when you jumped
So if you want me to leave I'll be gone again
Like this pain too deep we can not amend
Back off, back on, back off the wind
And I'm just so sick of hearin' all your friends
When I'm on the fame road
Getting harder to connect so I just don't call
Didn't tend to the roots right
If we both come apart why's it all my fault
Sweepin' up the last of the ash
From the flame that we had and just wishin' for the old spark
Would you rather have had or have had and Loss doesn't matter when you're livin' with a broke heart
Hit my phone with midnight text sayin'
Lately I don't know what I'm doin' this for
Even though I said I would always be here

My heart don't beat the same anymore
Ever since I let you break it before
It's the pain that I can't ignore
I told her that's just how relationships are
They go from great to gone, I'm praying to God

Take the pain away, take the pain away, take away from my heart
Take the pain away, take the pain away, take away from my heart
My heart don't beat the same anymore
Take the pain away, take the pain away, take away from my heart
Take the pain away, take the pain away, take away from my heart
My heart don't beat the same anymore
