

DARKFIGHTER

Rival Sons

See my shadow
Moving right before my eyes
See it choosing my next step
I go chasing, won't you follow
Won't you follow and forget
Flood into my dreams
Caving overhead

Who's gonna find my island if the ships never come this way?
Who's gonna find my island if the ships never come this way?

I wanna be a Darkfighter, a Lightbringer to the end
I wanna be a Darkfighter, a Lightbringer to the end

Words replace me
Speaking faster than my mind
So I stumble and collide
To make fact of a feeling
Of what's buried deep inside
Watercolours bleed
Blending great design

Who's gonna find my island if the ships never come this way?
Who's gonna find my island if the ships never come this way?

I wanna be a Darkfighter, a Lightbringer to the end
I wanna be a Darkfighter, a Lightbringer to the end
I wanna be a Darkfighter, a Lightbringer to the end
I wanna be a Darkfighter, a Lightbringer to the end
Until the end
Until the end
