

Dangerous

Rivals

These demons knock on my door
But they don't dare to come in
'Cause they know what's best for them

If it's a war that I'll win
Then it's a war that I won
Pastures filled with the blood-soaked sun
Grab all your bones, yeah
Tell the devil I'll come
My future, but the vultures' song

I am God in human flesh
I am a woman with no regrets
Does that make me dangerous?
(I know I'm dangerous)

Oh, oh, ohh oh
I know I am
Oh, oh, ohh oh
I know I am

Getting trapped in the motions
Got my hands on the ropes
Tying the knots that are making me choke
It's the beauty of my own demise
Danger wrapped in bleach
Soaking what's underneath

I am God in human flesh
I am a woman with no regrets
Does that make me dangerous?
(I know I'm dangerous)

Oh, oh, ohh oh
I know I am
Oh, oh, ohh oh
I know I am

These demons knock on my door
But they don't dare come in
'Cause they, they know what's best for them
They wanna rip out my soul
But they can't break the skin
'Cause I, I know I'm dangerous

I am God in human flesh
I am a woman with no regrets
Oh, and I know I am dangerous

These demons knock on my door
But they don't dare come in
'Cause they, they know what's best for them
They wanna rip out my soul
But they can't break the skin
'Cause I, I know I'm dangerous
