Rivals

Darling, you don't have to say another word
Everybody's got their reasons
And everybody's got their demons
I know if there's only one thing that I've learned
Everyone I know is drowning
But no one wants to talk about it

And it's okay you're broken
'Cause I am too ('Cause I am too)
A dead end generation
We're wasted youth

Wake me up when the nightmare's over
Try to survive (Try to survive), to get out alive
I'm nothing but a gunslinger walking on the line (Walking on the line
)
Yeah, I'm nothing but a gunslinger, gunslinger, gunslinger

Tell me, do you also lie awake sometimes?
I know that it feels the coldest
When you're hiding in the darkness
Savior, everybody wants to take the crown
Royalty in fragile houses
But no one wants to talk about it

And it's okay you're broken
'Cause I am too ('Cause I am too)
A dead end generation
We're wasted youth

Wake me up when the nightmare's over
Try to survive (Try to survive), to get out alive
I'm nothing but a gunslinger walking on the line (Walking on the line
)
Yeah, I'm nothing but a gunslinger, gunslinger, gunslinger

When the time comes, would you fight it?
When your heart stops, would you let it?
When the time comes, would you fight it?
When your heart stops, would you let it?
When the time comes, would you fight it?
When your heart stops, would you let it?
When the time comes, would you fight it?
When your heart stops, would you let it?

Wake me up when the nightmare's over
Try to survive (Try to survive), to get out alive
I'm nothing but a gunslinger walking on the line (Walking on the line
)
Yeah, I'm nothing but a gunslinger, gunslinger, gunslinger
