

Haunted / Hunted

Rivals

Are you even proud of me?
I was made to break down walls
And I fight insecurities
Just like the rest of them all
And are you fuckin' proud of me?
'Cause I watched the world burn
And I make fantasies
A lesson I'll never learn

That ghost inside of you
Will make you do those things you never wanted
Do you feel haunted?
That beast inside of you
Will make you do those things you always wanted
Do you feel hunted?

Do you even care about me?
Was I strong enough for you?
And I lack integrity (Integrity)
But I always pull right through
This is fucking honesty
When I say that I'm insane
One thing you'll notice
You'll always remember this game

That ghost inside of you
Will make you do those things you never wanted
Do you feel haunted?
That beast inside of you
Will make you do those things you always wanted
Do you feel hunted?

Set your sights on the prize
Are you fighting for your life?
Is this everything you've ever wanted?
Is this everything?
When your life was on the line
Did you even choose a side?
Is this everything you've ever wanted?
Is this everything?

That ghost inside of you
Will make you do those things you never wanted
Do you feel haunted?
That beast inside of you
Will make you do those things you always wanted
Do you feel hunted?
