

Keep Going

Rivals

Left all broken, I'm stuck in motion
Not quite moving, but I left them all behind
My heart is frozen, but I've barely noticed
Chipped away one piece at a time

Don't you see this is all I ever needed?

Woah, oh, woah, oh, I live in lights
Broke, but at least I feel alive
Woah, oh, woah, oh, I live in lights
Broke, but I know who I am inside
(Woah, oh) There's something better on the other side
Keep going, going

Live on the road, it's where I belong
And if we crash, at least I died alive
I hear them all talk, but I know they're not wrong
I worked too hard to let them all inside

Don't you see this is all I ever wanted?

Woah, oh, woah, oh, I live in lights
Broke, but at least I feel alive
Woah, oh, woah, oh, I live in lights
Broke, but I know who I am inside

Even though they hate me, I'm happy alone
And even when they taunt me, my sanity's gone
And when I try to give up, I keep pushing on
When they try to blind you, don't be scared of the dark

Woah, oh, woah, oh, I live in lights
Broke, but at least I feel alive
Woah, oh, woah, oh, I live in lights
Broke, but I know who I am inside

Don't you see this is all I ever wanted?
(Woah, oh) There's something better on the other side
Keep going, going
(Woah, oh) There's something better on the other side
Keep going, going
(Woah, oh) There's something better on the other side
Keep going, going
