

Low

Rivals

I don't know what to feel, what to feel
'Cause it's never ending
I just need, I just need an escape

Tell me now, come around if the sky is falling
Tell me something I want to hear
I need it now

Because we've run out of time
So put your heart on the line
I've been breaking down
Can you save me?
I've been running low lately
I've been running

La-la-la-low, la-la-la-low, la-la-la-low, la-la-la-low

Pick me up from the floor
I'm reborn 'cause I'm done pretending
I just need, I just need to be brave

Tell me now, come around if the sky is falling
Tell me something I want to hear
I need it now

Because we've run out of time
So put your heart on the line
I've been breaking down
Can you save me?
I've been running low lately
I've been running

La-la-la-low, la-la-la-low, la-la-la-low, la-la-la-low

Low
And where are you? I tried
We might make it through
This time, this time

Because we've run out of time
So put your heart on the line
I've been breaking down
Can you save me?
I've been running low lately
I've been running

La-la-la-low, la-la-la-low, la-la-la-low, la-la-la-low, low
