

When Does It End

Rivals

Fading, I can finally feel me
Hate me, but I feel alive
Shaking, my body's feeling
Wasting, life full of lives

I don't wanna be me anymore
I don't wanna be me anymore
So

When does it end?
When can I call it quits?
When does it end?
When do the feelings stop
And I can be me again?

(You need to learn to love yourself)

Pull it back
You don't get to do that
You got way too much on your plate
Can't find the words to say so
You're crying all alone again
Stuck in your head again
Trapped in your mind again and so you

Find a place, cold and alone
My skin is chrome, it's why I do not float
I'm spinning now, my vertigo
I saw a ghost, I'm cold like a Scorpio

I don't wanna be me anymore
I don't wanna be me anymore
So

When does it end?
When can I call it quits?
When does it end?
When do the feelings stop?
When does it end?
When can I call it quits?
When does it end?
When do the feelings stop?

(Da-da-da-da-da-da)
(Da-da-da-da-da-da)
(I hate it here)
(Da-da-da-da-da-da)
(Da-da-da-da-da-da)
(I hate it here)

I've been in the bathroom taking pictures
Hate my own reflection (reflection)
I'm doing it again (again)
Self-loathing, I think I fucking hate me
Not even that shocking (shocking)
I'm doing it again, yeah
I'm doing it again

I'm doing it again

When does it end?
When can I call it quits?
When does it end?

When does it end?
When can I call it quits?
When does it end?
When do the feelings stop?
When does it end?
When can I call it quits?
When does it end?
When do the feelings stop?
