

Cedar Dream Part I

River Whyless

The old shed with the boxes
They leak something
And your old bed with the new spread
It creaks something right to me
Right to me
The cinder and the timber
One road to be alone
The cabin we'd have died in
And finally we were home, so we had to leave
So we had to leave