

I've been in love
And I've been lost
Would a bedside prayer cover the cost of us
So come off your knees
Is God just another word for company
That I don't need

I've got work
And I have want to fill the room
But when the stage lights dim they all walk away from me
So come off your knees
This hotel room is cold please you're company
Your company was all I needed

If a ghost knows
There is no door
Then the turn of a stone
Is the god I'm indebted to

I heard that you stopped
I heard that you stopped praying for us
Like your fellows and my family

I won't let you stop
No I won't let you stop calling for me
From the hollows of your body

If a ghost knows
There is no door
Then the turn of a stone
Is the god I'm indebted to

If a ghost knows
There is no door
Then the turn of a stone
Is the god I'm indebted to

If a ghost knows
There is no door
Then the turn of a stone
Is the god I'm indebted to

If a ghost knows
There is no door
Then the turn of a stone
Is the god I'm indebted to