

Heart Out of Season

Riverdales

Summers gone and in it's place
Is a gray and lifeless cold embrace
And I'm dreaming of an island for you and me

The waves are warm, the sunshine watches
It falls the sky, maroon a sun
Like a ball descending turning into the night

But now it's cold outside and maybe that's the reason
Tonight, tonight, our world sighs
Tonight, tonight, we'll say goodbyes
Tonight, tonight, my heart is out of season

Whoa oh oh, do wop do wop
Whoa oh oh, do wop do wop
Whoa oh oh, do wop do wop
Whoa oh oh...

But now it's cold outside and maybe that's the reason
Tonight, tonight, our world sighs
Tonight, tonight, we'll say goodbyes
Tonight, tonight, my heart is out of season
