

I Want To Take You Home Tonight

Rivers Cuomo

I want to take you home tonight
And lay you down beside the fire
I've never seen your face before
I probably won't see you no more

I hope I find another girl
That thinks that I am lovely too
But they don't make those kind of girls
And so I cry from me to you

Ooh ooh ooh
Ooh ooh ooh
Ooh ooh ooh

This is another New Year's Eve
And I am happy with myself
I like to disco on the floor
I probably won't see you no more

If what I take from this ordeal
Is to sit down with you and me
I'd tell you that I love you so
I probably won't see you no more

Ooh ooh ooh
Ooh ooh ooh
Ooh ooh ooh

Don't go, I want you to stay
I need you to stay and hold me
Don't go, I want you to stay
Need you to stay and hold me

I want to take you home tonight
And lay you down beside the fire
I've never seen your face before
I probably won't see you no more

I want to take you home tonight
I want to take you home tonight
I've never seen your face before
I probably won't see you no more

Ooh ooh ooh
