

Chambers of Civility

Rivers of Nihil

We have become addicted to nothing
System interface
With thy organic mind
Altruistic living is a waste of time
Materialism dominates our kind
We are slaves in the new world, just part of a design

Just consumers
Not immune to the snakes that will sell our souls
To machines, we belong
Eat the shit they give us because we can't live without it

We are so numb because wanted it this way
We are so numb because we like it like this

Elective euthanasia societal anesthesia
Sew my eyes shut, I won't watch this anymore
Sew my mouth shut, I won't eat this shit... you give to me

Living in civil chambers we have separatist behaviors
Cultivating an unchanging landscape
Meaningless distractions
Concoction made to make us numb

Side effects include disillusion
Paranoia and lack of trust
Mechanical walls built to hold us in
Invisible lines are drawn

Sew my eyes shut
Refusing to be subjective to such diluted imagery

The pure soul of immunity
Resisting through the chambers of civility

Elective euthanasia societal anesthesia
Sew my eyes shut, I won't watch this anymore
Sew my mouth shut, I won't eat this shit... you give to me
